MANY COMMUNICATIONS PEACE SPEECH SENT ON

ON BRANDEIS RECEIVED FRANK OF DEFENSE MAN

Subcommittee Cannot Read All Letters and Telegrams—Will Meet Again Tomorrow Morning.

The Senate subcommittee on Judiciary were unable to read all the letters and telegrams that have come to them on the Brandeis justiceship nomination since they took charge of the case at the brief meeting held yesterday.

The subcommittee held its first meeting, with Senator Chilton, of West Virginia, presiding. The other members were Senators Walsh, of Montana; Fletcher, of Florida; and Clark, of Wyoming, and Cummins, of Iowa. Chairman Chilton admitted that they got only half way through and then took a recess until tomorrow morning.

Sensor Overman, who expressed his strong disapproval of the nomination when it was first made, has issued a statement saying he had not decided what attitude he will take toward the confirmation.

Edward A. Filene, of Boston, a former president of the chamber of commerce, and friend of Mr. Brandeis, is in Washington and is prepared to go before the committee and refute many of the statements that have been made about the nominee. Clifford Thorne, State railroad commissioner of Iowa, who is fighting Brandeis, is expected to reach this city tomorrow.

LEON VINCENT SPEAKS ON LIFE OF CARLYLE

Lecture at Sidwells' Friends School

Abounds in Wit, Anecdote and Pungent Remark.

A large audience, made up of the students and their friends, greeted Leon Vincent's lecture on "Carlyle," which was given at the Sidwells' Friends School yesterday afternoon.

In a lecture that abounded in wit, anecdote and pungent remark, the speaker reviewed the life of the Carlyles from their early years in Scotland through their struggles and final triumphs in London. While admitting that Carlyle himself was not a man whom one would wish to live in the same house with, Mr. Vincent said and proved that in every matter of great importance, no one could be more absolutely unselfish than was Thomas Carlyle.

The speaker said Jane Carlyle was coquettish, keen and shrewd. She read Virgil at ten. She was brilliant and intellectually unselfish. Her death during her husband's absence, while he was receiving the Lord Rectorship of Edinburgh University, was the tragedy of Carlyle's later life.

There Is Still Plenty of Room In The Herald's "50,000 Club"

Fourteen Additional Members Joined Yesterday and Will Work for Prizes in Contest Which Has Rewards for Every Worker in Its Ranks.

There is still plenty of room for more candidates in the "50,000 Club," although fourteen additional members joined yesterday.

Three of the members will be sporting brand-new, up-to-date automobiles, three enjoying the music from the best musical instruments on the market and many others will be sharing the district prizes and a generous slice in cash that makes up the other prizes on March 24.

Make Up Your Mind Today.

Why not make up your mind today that you can win one of the cars, pianos or the Columbia Grafonola? Just think, by taking part in The Washington Herald's "50,000 Club," you can make yourself the owner of a $1,350 Mitchell, $115 Saxon "6," or the $480 Maxwell "25" touring car. To what better use can you devote your spare time?

It may not seem possible, but The Herald has ordered just such cars from the local agents and if you have the necessary enthusiasm and "pep" in you, you can make up your mind to the king-pin of the club members, these machines will pass into your possession on March 24.

Extra prizes in addition to the six grand prizes, there are forty-four district prizes and 10 per cent cash commission to be paid to the active non-prize winners. Thus you can see that nobody loses and everybody wins an automobile, piano, grafonola, a district prize or a cash commission. Can you really afford to pass this up? If you want to get in on the good things, nominate yourself. Do not wait for a friend to do it for you. Just clip the entry or nomination coupon, elsewhere in this paper, and send to the office of the "50,000 Club" at once.

Friends Will Help You.

You get 1,000 votes on the nomination and 5,000 votes on your first subscription payment of any kind, either old or new. Then there are the "free compulsory" ballots, good for fifty votes each, on being signed by a regular subscriber to The Washington Herald.

If your friends see that you have made a start, they will rally to your support in the battle, to an automobile owner. Those who say it cannot be done are continually being interrupted by someone who performs the act. Simply make up your mind that you want one of the six grand prizes, a district prize, or a cash commission, and then start right today and work for the prize you want.

This is one newspaper subscription campaign where everybody wins. There are no blanks. Send in your entry today, and on March 24 you will be glad you did so.

Bottled liquor and other intoxicating liquors cannot be purchased and taken to restaurants and drunk with meals, and persons following this practice will be arrested on a charge of a violation of the excise law, and anything should have occurred to interrupt or to mar the relations of cordial friendship that has long subsisted between the two nations.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Dandruffine at any drug store, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all of this awful scurf will have disappeared. Two or three applications will destroy every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.—Adv.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK, FEVERISH CHILD

If Little Stomach Is Sour, Liver Torpid or Bowels Clogged.

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile, and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish, and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it cannot cause injury. No difference what all your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach ache, bed breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look for the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Adv.
